

WASTE REDUCTION PROGRAM

We, the undersigned, are committed to doing our part to support and lead the specialty of Urgent Care medicine by significantly reducing waste generation across our operations by prioritizing responsible consumption, actively educating our employees on waste reduction strategies, and aiming to minimize our environmental impact through sustainable waste management practices, we will start with a red bag/biohazard waste reduction program.

This award is presented to:

